house, at One Hundred and Sixteenth street and Seventh avenue, were start-led by the cry of fire to-day. The halls of the house and the rooms on the of the house and the rooms on the lower floor filled with smoke.

The fire was discovered in the casings of the wall in the basement about 6.30 o'clock. An alarm was sent in for the engines, but before they arrived the tenants formed a bucket brigade, and the fire was got under control. The damage was trifling.

George Huber, owner of the Wilhelmina, said that he could not account for the fire, unless it was caused by defective insulation of electric light wires.

BRADY GAS RING

Pierpont Morgan, and author of the Knickerbocker Trust Company's reorganization plan, to-day appeared as counsel in a bitter war against Anthony N. Brady, Charles F. Dieterich, E. C. Benedict, other capitalists. The A. B. Proat have been flirting with the bondholders of the so-called Dieterich Indiana Gas Companies, supplying forty cities and towns in Ohio and Indiana.

The bondholders have formed a proective committee with Mr. Satteriee at its head. The other members are James When Thomas Karney was called be- falcott, John Henry Hammond, Eugene When Thomas Karney was called before MagIstrate Hone in the Harlem Court to-day, all that could be seen of his face was his right eye, and that was thoroughly blackened and rolled weakly in his socket. His head was so swathed in bandages that it looked like a giant mushroom set insecurely on a stem much too small for it.
